FUNDING FOR RCL BURCO SERVICES, LLC

Fort Worth-based railroad material integration and construction services company prepares for major expansion

DALLAS, January 4, 2010 – Challenger Capital Group, Ltd., a Dallas-based full-service investment bank, announced today that it has secured a $20.0 million investment for RCL Burco Services, LLC (“RCL”). The capital will support growth resulting from the federally mandated “Positive Train Control” legislation. Genuity Capital Partners and Torch Lake Capital provided the capital.

Headquartered in Fort Worth, Texas, RCL is the nation’s leading material integration and construction services company serving the railroad industry. RCL provides its customers with efficient inventory procurement, warehousing, distribution and first class construction services as well as other value added services.

Bob Albritton, Chairman and CEO of RCL commented, “The rail industry is going to spend billions of dollars over the next six years on PTC, High Speed Rail and capital improvements. RCL is very fortunate to be playing an integral part in the successful allocation of these funds for our Class I customers. We feel very fortunate to have found such solid partners as Genuity and Torch Lake Capital to help fund the rapid growth RCL will experience during this time period and beyond. They are both very capable investors with wonderful track records.”

“This transaction will assist RCL in continuing to provide best in class service to its customers and Challenger is pleased to have served as the company’s financial advisor and placement agent,” said Jeff Matthews, Challenger Managing Director. “The success of this transaction in such a challenging economic environment is due directly to RCL’s management team and their strategic vision and operational excellence.”
